IN MEMORIAM

GERALD MCGRATH

"Jerry"

"A smile is a curve that set's many things straight."

We have reached a point in our lives that is a culmination of one long journey and a beginning of a new and unknown one for each of us. It's fitting that we should choose this moment to reflect upon the paths that we've traveled, and to remember that there are those who did not complete the trek with us.

We all have our own personal memories of Jerry McGrath, and these bits and pieces, the scenes of our youth, will stay with us long after we go our separate ways. It's impossible to justify such a tragedy, so perhaps the best thing we can do is keep these warm memories of Jerry with us forever, and to occasionally walk back in our minds through the halls where we shared those happy times with him.

IN MEMORIAM

You were always there
in my thoughts and dreams
making me smile
while I'm remembering.

The laughter,
sadness and joy,
that we shared,
we took both —
the good, the bad,
and hardly cared.

The love you gave
never let down.
You were always there
to turn to,
to give us smiles
and never frowns.

You became a part of us,
and we were sure
that our friendship
would never end.

For our love
had encountered
many obstacles
but we never gave in.

Time eventually separated us
and changed all things, but the feelings are never lost for our memories remain.

DANNY BODETTE IN MEMORIAM:

We all look back and remember Danny with great fondness. It seems as though everyone knew and liked Dan. We should all remember him as the kind and cheery person that he was and for all the laughter and smiles he brought us. The Class of '84 will always remember him.
