Parents' Notes

Jeremy, When did he change from this dressey look to a young adult in jeans and t-shirts.

Candie, No words can describe the pride we feel inside for who you are and all that you've done and all that is yet to come. We want you to know that we are very proud of you and we'll always be there for you. Love, Mom & Dad

Mel and Lis, Since that wonderful surprise 18 years ago, life has never been the same! Two so alike yet so very different. For all the smiles, laughter, pride and love you've brought, "I wouldn't have missed it for the world!" Love, Mom

My Darling Daughter Danielle, I am so proud of you. You have grown into a remarkable young woman. You have accomplished much in your 18 years and traveled the world (all those fund raisers!) I love you, Mom

Dan, Congratulations! You are a very special young man and we will always be very proud of you. Always remember who you are and what you believe in, and God will surely bless you. Much love, Dad, Mom, Michael, & Kristin.

Brian, You have grown into manhood with such ease because you have always kept your kindness and sensitivity intact. We are blessed and proud of you. Love, "Tiger & Bonz"

Jessica, You have been a real delight to watch as you have grown into a young woman. We are so very proud of your high school accomplishments, and you will have our total support in pursuing your post high school goals. Love, Mom & Dad

Cady, The greater the obstacle the more glory in overcoming it, and we know you can do it. We are proud of you! Love, Mom & Dad

JaimeeLyn, Congratulations, we are so very proud of you. You've done an exceptional job! This is just the beginning of a great life that you've set for yourself. We love you this much! Love, Dad, Mom, & o

Heather, We are very proud to have you as our daughter. Keep smiling and laughing and the world will be a whole lot brighter for you. Love, Mom & Dad

Johnna, We, Johnna's family and friends, are so proud of her for overcoming so many obstacles in her young life. We know that her dad Ed, and her brother Mark would also be proud of her accomplishments

Allison #23, Thank you for all your accomplishments. Even though you're a bear when you wake up, you're still a sweet heart. We've always been proud of you and always will be. Love always, Mom & Dad

Annie, Although feisty at times, you are truly caring and compassionate. Your intelligence, concern for others, sense of humor and commitment will surely permit you to succeed. We're confident many youngsters will say, "Annie is my favorite teacher!"

Well, Hello Dolly! What a terrific high school career; you have studied, cheered, acted, danced, sang and much more - it has been exciting to share. Remember, "the room is crawling with men," and the world is crawling with opportunities. Love, Mom & Dad

Dearest Alison, Always know that the door that opened to let you go out into the world will always be open to welcome you home. Be happy. Be Safe. Carry our love in your heart and you will never be alone. Love, Mom, Dad, & Michael

Farrah, Feel deeply, Enjoy simply, Think freely, Take risks, Welcome love, Be who you really are. Love, Mom & Mac

Jen, "We are born weak, we need strength; helpless, we need aid; foolish, we need reason. All that we lack at birth, all that we need when we come to man's estate, is the gift of education." Jean-Jacques Rousseau (1712-1778) Love, Mom & Dad

Kyle, At one time you were taller than your little brother. You have always had a lot of heart and soul for your brother, for your family and for your God, Jehovah. Set Goals. Keep Focused

Parents' Notes

Carl, In the world beyond, you'll be judged on your talent, creativity and intelligence, not on the simplicity of your smile and how many local friends number in your family. Love, Mom

Melissa, You are the sunshine in our lives, and we've been proud of you forever. No one ever said life would be easy or fair. Keep your positive attitude, and continue to give life your best efforts. May all your dreams come true. Love always, Mom & Dad

London, Thank you for your love and friendship and for growing into such a great person. We are so proud of you and always will be. We love you so much. Love, Mom & Dad

Seth, You sure have kept life interesting for us with your manic snow and water skiing, your cliff jumping and fast driving. May you continue to live life to the fullest. We sure are proud of you. Love, Mom & Dad

KLM, It's really hard to believe that you are graduating! Seems like yesterday we were calling you "care bear." We know you can do anything that you want, if you put your mind to it. Love ya lots, Mom, Dad, & Laurie

Travis, You have grown up to be a fine young man. We are as proud of you today as we were the day you were born. Never give up on your dreams. Love Mom, Dad, Trevor, Stephan and Megan

Jamie, We've given you wings to fly with, and roots to hold you firm. We've watched you grow and mature, from a cute little girl to a fine young lady. We're so proud of you. We love you, Mom & Dad

Sharon, There is no present, only anticipation of the future and reflection of the past. As you leap into the future, Sharon, hold tight to the joys of your childhood. Love, Dad

Scot, Roses are red, Violets are blue. We may hate your music, But we're damn proud of you! We wish you all the best for a productive and rewarding future. Love, Mom, Kusty, Steve, Karen, & Johanna

Chuck, To our son, "Keep your father's commands, and do not forsake your mother's teaching. Bind them upon your heart forever." Proverbs 6:20. Congratulations! Love, Mom & Dad

Sara, Pumpkin Seed, Princess, First Born Daughter, Da-da-d, Bubble gum, Ball Gowns, Worker, College Dreams, Bon Voyage, my dear! May you follow your heart, find your Bliss! Send a postcard once in a while along the way! Love, Dad

Laura, We would just like to let you know that we are very proud of you. You've worked so hard to do your very best and it has paid off. We know you will do well in whatever endeavor you choose. Love, Mom, Dad, & Family

Jennifer, Congratulations on all you have done and may this be the beginning of more great things for you. Thank you for all that you are - honest, giving, loving, and talented. With love, Mom & Dad

Jennifer Roberts, You have added many special memories to our life. We are so proud of the beautiful woman you have become. Our wish for you is to enjoy as many experiences as you can. Always remember that we love you. Love, Mom & Dad

Ja, We have watched you grow into a wonderful caring young man. As a family we have been through a lot together. We have always been proud of you and your accomplishments and always will be. Love, Mom, Dad, Jen, & Gram

Pete, You have your roots and now it is time to spread your wings. Good luck to you as you explore the world. Be happy, be safe, and have fun. Love, Mom & Dad

LeAnn, Our little "Campbell Soup Girl," "Bumbles," may you bounce through life with all the happiness you deserve and not just thinking of horses. Hold fast to your dreams. We're proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, and, of course, Jason too.

Nannon, "And ever has it been that love knows not its own depth until the hour of separation." The gift of your spirit and grace have enriched our lives beyond words. You hold our love with you always. Love, Mom, Dad, & Rory

EMERALD CITY

Our Emerald City glittered and shone,
To pay for it we almost took out a loan.
Ella Spencer was crowned Queen for a night,
While Cory Paquin served as King just right.
Next in order was Carl Jin and Jen Johnson, who did play,
But Jessica Clayton and Chuck Porcheron danced
the night away.
Third in line was Steve Markowski and Jen Rice, While Jamie Muzzy and Seth Laidman added some spice.
Our prom was incredibly great,
No one can ever call it second rate.

Friends help in times of need,
They are near when you fail and when you succeed.
Friends dance, laugh, and cry with you,
Real friendships are always true.

ninety-five

Seniors, it is time to say farewell to Vergennes Union High School. Not goodbye, but farewell. This school has been ours for a mere six years, but our seemingly short days here will shape our lives forever.

Do you remember the first time that you unlocked your locker on your own? You felt triumphant and victorious. Parish Hall dances taught us the hokey-pokey and the chicken dance, while musicals taught us to waltz. Our junior prom was a night that we will never forget. Emerald City never seemed so inviting. Our Lady Commodores dared to win, while our varsity men took just another victim. We've made it to Districts, All-States, the play-offs, the semi-finals, Paris, the Ukraine, and Germany, but we've always come back to Monkton Road, Vergennes, Vermont 05491. These truly have been the days to remember. -Rhiannon Thompson

"These are days you'll remember. Never before and never since, I promise, will the whole world be warm as this."

Coach's Corner

What a season!!! We improved so much ... more goals, more wins, and we hosted a Division II playoff game ... the first one in 10 years for girls soccer at VUHS. We met our goals of scoring more, improving team play and getting a home playoff berth. Each player came eager to learn and play the game. The Lady Commodores sent a message around the Lake Division that VUHS was back. Maybe our hard work will be an example for future teams at VUHS, and they will "Dare to Dream" about a Championship!

Setting Goals and Reaching New Heights

Varsity Cheerleaders in 1994-95 dedicated themselves to the sport of cheerleading. They performed routines with spirit and pride, and they kept the basketball teams in high gear. They represented VUHS at the State Competition with talent and vitality. This year a new elite stunt was added to their repertoire and the Liberty is now a new Commodore way of flying high.

Senior Mark English

The 1994-95 wrestling season took its toll on a very young wrestling team. Lacking the thirteen wrestlers needed to fill a team, the boys had to fight a deficit of 30 points nearly every match, making it very hard to win dual meets. Outstanding performances from our Co-Captains Tony Tisbert and Nathan Kittredge helped our team to move forward. Only losing one senior Mark English, we are looking to a much stronger season next year with Justin Session, Ben Provencher, Paul Torrey, Nathan Kitteredge, Tony Tisbert, Victor Samaritoni and Carl Laberge all returning.

First home playoff game in a decade.

The 1994 Varsity Baseball MVP: Jason Whittemore.

Starting the year with a young team of four seniors, six juniors, and three sophomores, the Commodores surprised other teams and themselves with a 5-2 record at midseason. A stunning victory over Middlebury helped carry the team into the play-offs. The VUHS record of 9-5 enabled a home play-off game and the 8-4 victory over Black River; second-seeded South Royalton took the next game. While not reported in this text, due to yearbook deadlines, the 1995 season should be equal or better than that of 1994.

Taking It Day By Day

The sophomore year was an exciting one. We were not the new kids anymore, but we were not yet old-school. The prom was a year away and graduation a full two. We had already begun to fund raise. With food drives and car washes, our class became closer. We made new friends and strengthened the friendships we had. In the future we will look on this year with fond memories.

The Band

Pi Kappa Festival

Fundraising galore was a favorite for band,
 For in May we were off to Maryland
 On stage we worked day after day,
 Honking and tooting trying to play
 Mrs. O.D. in the fn counting the beat,
 We sat in our rows tapping our feet
 Blowing our horns we made uch a sound,
 Yet some days instruments just couldn't be found
 Don't forget the marching - how much we loved
 The butterfly collars and oh! What a hat.
 Even black and white - We have to admit,
 Isn't so bad - WE LOVE EVERY BIT.

Keep In Step

Addison Repertory Theater

New this year is the Addison Repertory Theater Program at the Addison County Career Development Center. Productions have included the following: Tales from the Forest, The Crucible, participation in a one-act festival, and other spring efforts. The group is composed of students from VUHS (from left to right, Paul Carson, Carl Jin, Dawn Wagner, and Kelley Wright), MAUHS, and MUHS.

DRAMA CLUB

Every Thursday Mr. Matt attempted to transform aspiring students into serious actors and actresses. At least this is what he told us. Warm-ups included the sound and motion circle, mill and seed, and sound release. Our first performances were for ourselves and consisted of ad-libbed and published skits. After our creative juices got flowing we wrote and tried our own skits. Some examples of our play writing skills were as follows: Now That's Comedy! (Paul Carson, Rich Austin, Scot Oxholm), Statistically Speaking (Paul Carson), Pawn Shop (Scot Oxholm). We performed some of these skits for the school and also participated in a one-act festival.

UVM ESSAY Semifinalist

The UVM Essay Contest involves several stages of competition. At each level there are different topics on which we have to write. As semi-finalists, we wrote essays that were read and judged along with other essays from throughout the state. Although none of us were selected to go on to the next level, it was an honor to compete in such a prestigious contest that looks at writing as not only a skill but also an art.

New England Young Writers

Every May, Middlebury College's Breadloaf Campus opens its doors to the New England Young Writer's Conference. At Breadloaf, we had a chance to meet many different authors, both professional and our own age. They came from all over New England and New York. We attended assigned sessions that gave us a chance to receive criticism from professional writers and our peers. Ample time for our own independent writing was given as well. It was a unique experience to be isolated on that glorious campus in the mountains for three days, with becoming better writers as our sole objective.

Besides participating in district shows at VUHS and Bixby Library, students exhibited their work at Champlain Mills and Fletcher Free Library. Artwork on these pages demonstrates monochromatic color schemes, double images, balance exercises, and use of rhythm in the quilt designs.

1995 Dedication

John Lawrey was born and raised in Mt. Arlington, New Jersey, where he lived for forty-four years. He and his wife of thirty-five years have four children and four grandchildren. Today he enjoys golf and fishing, but as a high-school student he was first-string quarterback of his football team for four years. Before moving to Vergennes in 1983 he owned a retail and wholesale milk business. Mrs. Lawrey says that when John talks about VUHS, he says "We all need to remember students come first — they're the center of our work."

Mr. John Lawrey, you have helped us immeasurably. You have opened our lockers in May when we should have memorized the combination; you have allowed us safe passage upstairs and into the gym, the auditorium, and the music room when no one else would listen to our pleas. You have watched and heard more basketball practices, musical rehearsals, wrestling matches, and instrumental lessons than anyone in our school, but you have always seemed interested and never looked bored. There is always a smile on your face and a good word for everyone. For all that you have done for us and our school, the class of 1995 proudly dedicates its yearbook to you.

Making the 1995 yearbook was not always fun. There was a lot of work that had to be done. We started out as many, but dwindled to few. I guess they couldn't handle all we had to do. Pictures had to be cropped, layouts to be made. We sometimes wondered why we didn't get paid. Saturdays and Sundays we spent on this book. So you better take more than one look. We sometimes ran out of pictures and got stressed out. But that's what putting together a yearbook is all about. We tried to recap months from September, Because these are the days to remember.

Future Farmers Of America

The FFA is a leadership organization for students interested in pursuing a career in agriculture and provides opportunities for students to compete in many agricultural contests. So far this year, we have competed in regional and national contests. Ten members flew to Kansas City to compete in dairy foods, ag. business management, ag. mechanics, and extemporaneous speaking. One member received her American FFA Degree, the highest degree awarded by FFA. Members also won first place in the Vt. State Land Judging Contest held at V.T.C. this past October. We will compete in the National Land Judging Contest in Oklahoma City this spring.

V U H S FFA developed a composting project for solid waste from the school. The students were most cooperative during the audit and FFA members hope to have most solid waste from the cafeteria recycled into compost for next year.

Future Business Leaders of America members were busy this year trying to make money. They sold lollipops, Vermont Entertainment books and hats that came from Class. Seizing. FBLA members hoped to start a run store at Classic Sporting, but the project was postponed until next year. Members also attended the FBLA Conference held at the Sheraton on March 30 and 31. This conference gives participants an opportunity to compete in speed typing, speaking, and accounting.

Environmental Club

Environmental Club members have worked on several projects this year — giving a senior-high dance to support the whale watch trip, setting up and conducting the V.U.H.S. recycling program, helping supervise the food waste audit in the cafeteria, previewing video tapes for a club purchase, making terrariums from recycled plastic bottles, and planning the spring trip, the whale watch plus biking and camping on Cape Cod. Members of the Environmental Club are as follows left to right: Casey Daigneault, Jessica Devold, Jeff Gaboriault, Karen Blanchard, Cassie Boise, Lisa Coyle, Danielle Boise, and Siska Oetami. Missing were Kristie Miner and President Anne Lasher. Advisors — Donna Scott and Sue Miner.

Outdoor Club

During 1994-1995, special activities of the Outdoor Club included wall climbing at Climb High, hiking up Mount Abraham, sliding on Mount Philo, and cross-country skiing at Camel's Hump. In addition, Outdoor Club members met with the Burlington High School Outdoor Club to discuss winter survival skills. Club goals include helping students define their limits and discover more about themselves. Members are from left to right as follows: front row — Lisa Champine, Secretary Katie Hyldburg, Annie Donnelly, Lee Pratt, Vice-President and Treasurer Greg Smith; back row — Rich Przybylinski, President Moriah Park, and Landon Kittredge; missing — Mark English. Advisor — Chris Brady.

Ukrainian Exchange

Students and teachers who participated in the Ukrainian Exchange

This year VUHS families hosted eighteen students and two faculty from School No. 124 in Donetsk. The Ukrainian students enjoyed school activities, field trips around Vermont, and many social events. On April 11, Vergennes students flew to Donetsk and spent an exciting two weeks with their Ukrainian friends. The following students participated in the exchange: Andrews R, Austin, S, Bent, E, Bowers, R, Brunet, B, Danyow, A, Doenges, J, Farnsworth, A, Hellmuth, L, Laramie, A, Miner, K, Miner, J, Minns, S, Oxholm, A, Parker, L, Pierce, K, Pitkin, L, Pratt, M, Sabourin, L, Warden. Design Competition and Challenge Program

Vergennes Union High School teams competed very successfully in the 1994-95 Design Competition at UVM. Richard Pryzbylinsky launched a 14-pound bowling ball a foot in the air. Amy Miner and Richie Austin also had a solar power projectile launcher which threw a golf ball. Only these two teams competed in the Design Competition because the other nine teams did not complete their projects in time. They will continue to work towards completing their projects by the end of the year.

Students Against Drunk Driving

After several successful activities sponsored by SADD, YUHS students were more aware of the dangers of drinking and driving. About 100 students attended the October Lock-in, watching movies, playing games, dancing to music, playing tennis, and talking about Students Against Drunk Driving. In November, SADD held a Wines-Out Day. During the day students' faces were painted white to represent the percentage of people who might be killed or injured in an alcohol-related car accident, and at the final assembly the guest speaker talked about losing her son in an alcohol-related car accident. SADD students are hoping for an accident free 1994-95 school year.

Days Gone By In Senior High

1994 / 1995

World beat

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

After a peasant uprising in Chiapas and two major political murders, Mexico gets a new president. Ernesto Zedillo, an economist, assumes office only to face a stockmarket crash, a ruined economy, and a loss of international confidence in the wake of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

On July 25, U.S. President Bill Clinton welcomes King Hussein of Jordan, right, and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin to the White House, where the two sign a historic nonaggression pact that ends a 46-year state of belligerency between Israel and Jordan.

Conservative religious groups and those who believe in individual rights clash over issues of education for women and family planning at the U.N. International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, September 5.

Joyful residents of Belfast celebrate after the Irish Republican Army (IRA) announces an end to its military operations in Northern Ireland as of August 31. After 25 years of British military presence and over 3,000 killings, the IRA says it will now seek Irish union only through political channels.

When their Army helicopter accidentally strays into North Korea in December, Chief Warrant Officers Bobby Wayne Hall and David Hilemon are shot down by the communists. Washington does not admit to espionage as the North Koreans want, but negotiates for survivor Bobby Hall's release by expressing its sincere regret over the intrusion.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.

World News

Millions of South Africans travel weary hours and wait in mile-long lines to vote in the first all-race elections. After more than a century of white rule, the voters choose former political prisoner Nelson Mandela to preside over the dismantling of apartheid.

Jimmy Carter, former U.S. president and self-styled global troubleshooter for peace, negotiates on behalf of the U.S. in Haiti, Bosnia, and North Korea. He even offers to help settle the baseball strike.

U.S. President Bill Clinton, right, and British Prime Minister John Major take part in ceremonies in June 1994 at a military cemetery during the 50th anniversary commemoration of the Allied D-Day invasion of Europe, the event that sealed the fate of Nazi Germany during World War II.

India suffers an outbreak of pneumonic plague, carried by flea-infested vermin. Workers in Bombay earn five rupees for each exterminated rat; one thousand rat-tails earns a color TV.

Chinese school children, dressed to look like Colonel Sanders, welcome the president of Kentucky Fried Chicken to Shanghai in May 1994. Few of the country's many foreign business ventures thrive, but KFC becomes a Chinese favorite. The finger-lickin' enterprise makes plans to expand its outlets from 28 to 200.

A triumphant Jean-Bertrand Aristide reclaims his position as president and restores democracy to Haiti with the help of U.S. troops. Haiti had suffered under the rule of a military junta led by General Raoul Cedras, who goes into exile after reaching an agreement with U.S. mediators.

In one of the most successful antiterrorist operations in aviation history, French commandos storm an Air France jet-liner and kill four Algerian hijackers, freeing the plane's 173 passengers and crew.

In Japan, an earthquake with a magnitude of 7.2 collapses buildings, derails trains, buckles elevated expressways, and causes fires throughout the city of Kobe. Over 5,000 people are killed and 26,000 injured. The Japan quake occurs January 17, 1995, one year to the day after a quake devastated Los Angeles.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set off on homemade rafts and other small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on proteos rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old in Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

Called the Republican revolution, November mid-term elections put the Republican party and its anti-big government platform in control of Congress for the first time in 40 years. Georgia's Newt Gingrich, author of the GOP's "Contract with America," is the new Speaker of the House.

Heat, drought, and lightning combine to set Western states ablaze in late June and July. Fires consume 2,000 acres in Colorado's South Canyon when 50 mile-an-hour winds whip the flames into a firestorm, killing 14 specially trained firefighters; 10 men and four women.

The volunteers for Silent March bring shoes from every state for one of the quietest demonstrations to ever take place in Washington, D.C. Each empty pair of shoes represents one of the more than 40,000 Americans who have been killed by handguns.

Despite powerful National Rifle Association lobby efforts, Congress passes a crime bill banning the sale of 19 types of assault weapons. The Brady Law goes into effect; in one month 23,610 people with criminal records are denied the purchase of a handgun.

The prosecution seeks the death penalty in the case of Susan Smith, who dupes the nation with a frightening tale of the abduction of her two little boys. The community's early support grows quickly to hatred when Smith confesses to murder—she sent her children to their deaths at the bottom of a lake.

The 37th U.S. President, Richard Nixon, dies in April 1994. Nixon was responsible for restoring normal ties with the People's Republic of China following the signing of the Shanghai Communique in 1972.

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration blasts the tobacco company executives at a congressional hearing in March 1994 for denying that nicotine, a drug found in cigarette smoke, is addictive. Tobacco industry workers fear losing their jobs if the FDA succeeds in classifying and restricting cigarettes as a drug.

The Flint River overflows, washing coffins out of a Georgia cemetery after torrential rains from tropical storm Alberto flood Georgia and the Florida-Alabama panhandle. Thirty-two people die, 40,000 are temporarily homeless, and 10,000 square miles are underwater, causing $100 million in crop damage.

Former football star O.J. Simpson is charged with the June 12th stabbing death of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend Ronald Goldman, causing a non-stop media avalanche. The sensational case familiarized watchers with spouse abuse, a televised ride in a white Ford Bronco, "Kato" Kaelin, and DNA testing. Simpson faces the jury in January.

President Clinton, with Republican leader Bob Dole, signs legislation implementing the U.S. role in an expanded General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), one of the most sweeping trade liberalization pacts in history. The legislation makes the U.S. a member of a new 125-member World Trade Organization. Protectionists worry that GATT may promote world trade but won't sufficiently protect American jobs.

The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building's facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton's bedroom, killing the pilot.

The U.S. Interior Department moves the bald eagle from its endangered species list to the less critical "threatened" category. The Pacific Northwest's spotted owl is left to fend for itself when in June a federal judge lifts the 1991 injunction that halted logging in the owl's habitat.

The fossil of a previously unknown dinosaur, the 20-foot-long Cryolophosaurus ellioti, is found in Antarctica.

Despite a so-called fitness craze, the National Center for Health Statistics confirms the American overabundance of food combined with a sedentary lifestyle is creating an epidemic of obesity. Since 1980, the number of overweight adults has ballooned to one-third of the population, with an alarming increase among children.

Some of the 599 newly revealed secret ingredients major cigarette-makers add to improve taste and texture: beeswax, butter, carrot oil, citronella oil, cocoa shells, corn silk, dandelion root extract, 31 chemicals that start with ethyl, oak chip oil, vinegar, and dimethyltetrahydrobenzofuranone.

Three planets are discovered orbiting a pulsar star 3,000 light-years away in the constellation Virgo. One is the size of the moon and two are three times more massive than Earth; all are rocky worlds without an atmosphere.

NASA's space shuttle mission 64 tests the operations of a Simplified Aid For Extravehicular Activity Rescue (SAFAR) device. Crew member Mark Lee maneuvers successfully outside the Discovery, while Carl Meade photographs him against the background of Earth.

Martin Rodbell and Alfred Gilman are awarded the 1994 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine for developing a model of cell communication that has medical implications from cholera to cancer.

The Food and Drug Administration institutes new food labeling on almost all foods in response to consumer protest against the many misleading claims of food producers. The new readable labels provide realistic serving sizes, list calories from fat, and allow you to compare different nutrient values.

Autostereograms, popularly known as Magic Eye, cause legions of people to stare cross-eyed for long periods of time. Based on a mystery of neurology and 3-D objects, pattern elements fuse into left-eye and right-eye images of a single hidden object which appears to be floating.

The century's greatest chemist and antinuclear activist, Linus C. Pauling, winner of the Nobel Prize for Chemistry in 1954 and the Nobel Peace Prize in 1962, dies at the age of 93. His work on DNA laid the foundation for Crick and Watson's discovery of the double helix.

In Ethiopia, anthropologists discover the skull of a human ancestor, Australopithecus ramidus, 4.4 million years old. The new species has features midway between apes and humans and promises to provide clues to still earlier evolutionary stages.

Japan's "Love Love Simulation" computer program allows couples to take a non-scientific look at future offspring by digitally combining their own photos to predict a child's appearance.

NASA publishes a new report supporting the theory that a giant comet hit Earth 65 million years ago and vaporized 100 billion tons of sulphur to create the cloud barrier that froze Earth's atmosphere and killed the dinosaurs.

Astronomers wait at every major telescope in the world to see the historic cosmic crack-up of the 21 big fragments of Comet Shoemaker-Levy 9 as it smacks into the atmosphere of Jupiter at 134,000 miles an hour. Plumes of fire shoot up hundreds of miles, high enough to become visible to telescopes on Earth.

Internet activity rises sharply as surfers find their way around the information superhighway. Advertisers, rock music reviewers, the worldly Voice of America, and others decide it's time to jump on.

A cave is found in southern France, full of 300 vivid paintings of woolly-haired rhinos, bears, mammoths, panthers, and owls made about 20,000 years ago. The Stone Age artists also left behind bear skulls, flint knives, footprints, and fireplaces. Experts call it the archaeological find of the century.

A long-term study of radial keratotomy finds it generally safe and effective. For the nearsighted, tiny spokelike incisions into the eye improve focusing ability and eliminate the need for eyeglasses. The patient is awake for the procedure.

The non-violent CD-ROM game Myst by Cyan, Inc. becomes a best-selling phenomenon, winning legions of devoted fans and spawning imitators. The fantasy-adventure's graphic visuals are hyper-real; the written word is the key to the mystery.

One of Lake Superior's enduring mysteries is solved by scientists and marine historians who explore the wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald, an ore carrier that sank with its crew in a 1975 storm. The ship, overused and in poor condition, was ripped apart by 90-mph winds and 30-foot waves. Most of the 29 crewmen are entombed inside the wreckage, well preserved in the 39° waters.

Cutbacks in military spending force the U.S. Navy to reduce its elite 100-dolphin fleet trained for use in sonar research, mine sweeping, and underwater recovery. Too tame to be released in the open sea, the veterans of conflicts from Vietnam to the Persian Gulf retire to aquariums and water parks.

The most popular names for newborns this year are Ashley and Michael.

Young people serve their country by volunteering under a new program called AmeriCorps, where 20,000 people aged 17 and up work with community-based organizations in exchange for $7,500 plus money toward college tuition or loans.

One percent of the nation's 50 million school-age children learn at home as families seek alternatives to public schools. In a handful of high-tech experiments, kids submit homework by modem, download books and artwork from the Internet, and collaborate on academic projects with other children around the world.

A survey of college kids reveals their favorite sources of sugar and caffeine during all-night studying to be: powdered iced tea, peanut butter mixed with marshmallow cream, baby food ramen noodles, raw cookie dough, and trail mix made from chocolate chips, graham cracker bits, and mini-marshmallows.

A lively new cafe society centers around the 5,000 gourmet coffeeshops which spring up around the country. To the often young and trendy patrons, the social interaction is just as important as the espresso. Some cafes offer full-time Internet links so patrons can sip and chat with other Internet latte-drinkers.

Yoga, a Hindu system of stretching exercises for well-being, surges in popularity, mostly because the older generation seeks a technique for alleviating stress and finds yoga better than aerobics.

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year's hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate bustiers, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge-turned-beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A new survey shows that over 12 million Americans are vegetarians, choosing the no-meat lifestyle because of concern about animal cruelty, cost-efficiency, eco-friendliness and/or improved health and fitness.

The hottest merchandise around is Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, so hot Cabbage Patch dolls pale in comparison. Parents criticize Fox's super-violent TV show, but their kids crave Dragon Daggers, Megazords, and the 4-foot, $230 battery-powered car. "Go, go, Power Rangers!"

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

Led by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.

The first generation to ignore colas in favor of fruit drinks, today's young people give Snapple popular cult status. The trend breeds juice wars as Snapple imitators like Fruitopia vie for youth market shares and inundate the airwaves with Generation X-type advertising.

Pope John Paul II authors Crossing the Threshold of Hope, a blend of theology, evangelizing and personal reminiscence. It becomes a best-seller in 35 countries.

Remaining a virgin in the face of peer pressure finds new respect among teens who defend their freedom to forgo sex in a sex-crazy world. The movement is both a demand for real love and a reaction against unwanted pregnancy and health risks, since today one out of four kids are infected with sexually transmitted diseases by the age of 21.

Kool-Aid makes a cheap hair-dye, an alternative to bleached hair with, say, Prizm Blue added for sheen. The "city fade" shaves the sides of your head and leaves the top longer, and the matted hair look is achieved by leaving the soap in and forgetting to comb.

It's called "the year of the cottage industry" as more Americans adopt different work arrangements in response to corporate downsizing, either by telecommuting or starting businesses out of their homes.

The designer pets of the year are African pigmy hedgehogs, and some 3,000 find homes with humans. They are gentle, like to be petted, and need a once-a-day feeding of pet food or mealworms. They don't smell and will even eat your roaches.

John Travolta and Samuel L. Jackson star in Pulp Fiction, an "extravagantly demented low-life lalapatoosa with outlandish twists." The film's plot revolves around a watch, a briefcase, and a large syringe in a darkly humorous scene which reportedly causes a few audience members with needle-phobia to fall out of their seats in revulsion.

John Candy, the large and lovable star of films Splash, Cool Runnings, Home Alone, and many other family favorites, dies at the age of 43. Whether Candy played jerks, slobbers or loonies, his natural goodness came shining through.

Comic Margaret Cho stars in the first all-Asian sitcom "All-American Girl," about a college girl who's not making enough money to move away from home and has to live with her rigidly traditional Korean immigrant parents.

The animals aren't cuddly, but Disney's 32nd animated feature The Lion King is still a box-office smash and a sure classic. The story of a young lion, Simba, on the path to maturity combines five Tim Rice/Elton John songs with comedy that leaves audiences roaring. Just say "Hakuna matata," Swahili for "no worries."

Living Single" is hailed as a New York City version of "Designing Women." The comedy is about four women who share a big apartment, and features Kim Fields and rap star Queen Latifah, whose quiet presence and dignity singles her out as a star.

Talented young Claire Danes stars as a savvy 15-year-old confronting adolescent anxieties in the ABC television series "My So-Called Life," which receives critical acclaim. Danes also stars in the movie Little Women, with Winona Ryder.

This year's Emmy for best comedy series goes to TV's "Frasier," the story of a radio psychiatrist with a dysfunctional family. Star of the critical and main-stream hit, Kelsey Grammer dedicates his best-actor award to the dog "Eddie" whose off-screen name is Moose.

After his villain in Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing and his title role in Bertolucci's Little Buddha, actor Keanu Reeves buffs up to play an action star in Speed, about a bomb and a runaway bus, one of the year's biggest box office hits.

With the first female starship captain, TV's "Star Trek: Voyager" is the newest offshoot of the enduring Star Trek phenomenon, after "Deep Space Nine," "The Next Generation," and this year's full-length feature Star Trek: Generations.

Lou Gehrig's last day, Sandy Koufax on the mound, and Jackie Robinson's arrival are all part of the Ken Burns film "Baseball," an 18 1/2-hour historical mini-series on PBS. "Baseball" touches on American issues of race, labor, immigration, the role of women, urban renewal, popular media, and the nature of heroes and mythology.

Although his action fans may prefer True Lies, Arnold Schwarzenegger, with co-star Danny DeVito, cracks up audiences in Junior, where the strongman plays a boringly-serious scientist who tests a fertility drug on himself, learns the joys of motherhood, and falls in love with the baby's mom, Emma Thompson.

"Baywatch," the world's most-watched syndicated TV show, is a feel-good action/adventure about a Malibu lifeguard, played by David Hasselhoff. Sunny beach scenes take the pressure off plot or character development. In tribute to its popularity, Mattel, Inc. creates Baywatch Barbie.

Hoop Dreams is a documentary about two young Chicago athletes who dream of playing in the NBA. Arthur Agee and William Gates soon realize the dream will have to come at the expense of everything else. Hoop Dreams offers as much drama, excitement, and emotional ups and downs as anything to come out of Hollywood.

After their Woodstock '94 performance scores them mass adulation and an onstage mudbath, punk-pop trio Green Day wins the title for this year's best new band. Their album Dookie, featuring "Basket Case," goes triple platinum.

LPs make a comeback when major recording labels give in to pressures from artists and fans. New titles are released on vinyl, as well as CDs and tapes. Pronounced dead in the '80s, the revived 12-inch long-plays come complete with the art-covered sleeves and lyric-sheet inserts that make them collector's items.

Liz Phair follows up Exile in Guyville with Whip-smart and songs like "Super Nova" and "Jealousy." Her music is said to be about self-parody, defensiveness, beautiful flaws, and cluelessness.

Full-on noise mavens Nine Inch Nails and singer Trent Reznor drive home a point with their "Closer" single and hit video from their album The Downward Spiral.

Mosh pit heroes Bad Religion get plenty of play with "21st Century Boy" and their album Stranger Than Fiction.

Beastie Boys release their fourth hip-hop album Ill Communication on the heels of their highly popular Check Your Head.

Superunknown, a 70-minute, 15-song opus, debuts at No. 1 on the Billboard charts. Fans and critics say it's the best record of metal band Soundgarden's career.

THIS NEW MUSIC

EMI Records releases Live at the BBC a two-disc set of radio concerts recorded by the Beatles in the early '60s. "Free as a Bird," an original unfinished track by the late John Lennon, is finished, mixed with the live voices of Paul, George, and Ringo, and included in the set.

Nominated for best female vocalist, country singer Mary Chapin Carpenter croons at the Country Music Awards ceremony, but loses to Pam Tillis. Carpenter's album Stones in the Road tops the country charts.

It's a year of hits for buzz band, Gin Blossoms. Their top-selling album New Miserable Experience, covers "Hey Jealousy," "Found Out About You," and "Until I Fall Away."

Hailed as the crown prince of reggae, Buju Banton's album, Buju Banton: Voice of Jamaica, pumps the party with "Walk Like a Champion" and "Man a Look Yuh."

Dismissed as kiddie artists, three 12-year-old rappers who go by the name of Immature, get a new sound. Album Playtime Is Over and hits "Never Lie" and "Constantly" pump them up to stardom.

Hit single "Cryin'" wins MTV's Video of the Year award for singer Steven Tyler and metal band Aerosmith, who ride a wave of success and release their new album Big Ones.

The rock-spectacle Rolling Stones tour, named after their album Voodoo Lounge, combines a light show, computer animation, video blowups, and gigantic inflatable props. Millions watch the Stones prance through their classic and current hits like "Love Is Strong." Voodoo Lounge becomes the highest grossing tour in history with $115 million in ticket sales.

The Canadian band Cowboy Junkies, whose big hit this year is "Sweet James," sings of isolation and despair on their latest album Pale Sun/Crescent Moon.

Powered to the top with their pure pop sound, Swedish quartet Ace of Base tops the charts with The Sign. Their sound is a contagious blend of reggae-splashed pop known as "China Reggae."

J Mascis emerges as a prolific and versatile songwriter for the punk-rock band Dinosaur Jr. with "Outta Hand" and major hit "Feel the Pain," both on their latest album Without a Sound.

The Benedictine Monks of Santo Domingo de Silos release their CD, Chant. Heavy rotation on MTV turns the collection of ancient Gregorian chants into an unexpected best-seller.

Irish rock foursome, the Cranberries, tour the United States playing the sad, pretty melodies from their second hit album, No Need to Argue.

Rappers with a self-reliant attitude, Salt-N-Pepa keep their Very Necessary vibe going this year with hits "Shoop" and "Whatta Man" which wins them, along with En Vogue, an MTV Music Award.

Rapper Snoop Doggy Dogg's performance makes the movie soundtrack Above the Rim a best-seller. His video "It's a Doggy Dogg World" which reunites all the '70s black exploitation film stars, wins an MTV Music Award.

Ranked No. 1, the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers lifted their unbeaten season by defeating the Miami Hurricanes to win the national title. Quarterback Tommie Frazier earned MVP honors by leading the Huskers to two fourth-quarter touchdowns and a decisive 28-17 victory.

She was a pro at 13, a millionaire at 14, and out of the game at 17. After getting booked on charges of marijuana possession, Kenna star Jennifer Capriati enters a drug rehab program and makes a comeback in autumn where she plays well but loses her best-round match.

Former Wimbledon champ Andre Agass won the 1994 U.S. Open and beats champion Pete Sampras at the 1995 Australian Open. Called the most popular tennis player in the world, the tennis phenom has a new girlfriend, former model Brooke Shields.

The National Hockey League plays only 48 of the 82 games in the season this year due to a lockout. Following baseball's example, hockey owners put salary caps on their players, who strike but lose out to the owner's rule.

Track and field star Wilma Rudolph dies at the age of 54. The 20th of 22 children, she overcame polio, scarlet fever, and pneumonia to become a basketball star at 13, an Olympic bronze medalist at 16, and a winner of three gold medals in the 1960 Rome Olympics.

Whenever the Magic, led by 7'1" 300-pound Shaquille O'Neal, score 110 points, the Orlando McDonald's restaurants redeem home game tickets for a free Big Mac. With the team selling out all 16,000 seats, the Golden Arches supply a massive Mac attack, consoling fans for the lack of a playoff victory.

Pitchman George Foreman, 45, wearing the same red trunks he sported when he fought Muhammad Ali 20 years earlier, wins the world's heavyweight boxing title from Michael Moorer with a 10th round knockout.

The high rate of early burnout in women's pro tennis from media pressure, trainers, and sponsors causes the parents of Venus Williams, 14, to delay her pro debut.

Pete Sampras defeats Gorn Ivanisevic in the men's singles final at Wimbledon in July 1994, for his second straight Wimbledon title. In January, pressure of defending the title causes him to break down in tears at the 1995 Australian Open.

Having already announced her retirement from singles tennis, nine-time Wimbledon champion Martina Navratilova waves good-bye to an emotional crowd, after losing to Conchita Martinez in her last Wimbledon match.

In July, Miguel Indurain of Spain makes a triumphant entry on the Champs Elysées in Paris to win the Tour de France for the fourth straight time. He wins the 3-week, 3,218 km contest easily, finishing five minutes, 39 seconds ahead of the field. Greg LeMond, the only American to win the Tour de France three times, retires from racing because of health problems.

On June 14 the New York Rangers defeat the Vancouver Canucks 3 to 2 in the seventh game of the Stanley Cup play-offs, winning the coveted hockey cup for the first time in 54 years.

The Centennial Olympics will be in Atlanta, Georgia in 1996. The city will emphasize its multicultural aspects to honor athletes from around the world.

Dara Torres-Gowen becomes the first Olympic swimmer to model swimsuits in the Sports Illustrated annual swimsuit issue. Gold-medalist Torres-Gowen's sporty looks break the "walks and glamazons" mold dictated by fashion.

Fans are openly angry when a dispute between players and team owners over salary caps and other issues threatens to shut down baseball. A work stoppage begins on August 12, and no World Series is played for the first time since 1904.

Tonya Harding, barred for life from organized skating for obstructing justice in the investigation of an assault on Nancy Kerrigan, is offered $2 million by the All Japan Women's Pro Wrestling Association to wrestle as a baddie.

In Super Bowl XXIX in Miami, the San Francisco 49ers beat the San Diego Chargers 49-26, in their record-breaking fifth Super Bowl win. Quarterback Steve Young passes for a record six touchdowns to win most valuable player.

After 52 wins, four PPG Cup titles, and $10 million in earnings, Indycar champion Mario Andretti races for the final time in his 31-year career. The four-time Indianapolis 500 champion retires in October 1994.

Basketball star Sheryl Swoopes leads the U.S. women's basketball team to a gold medal at the Goodwill Games in Russia. Earlier she led Texas Tech to an NCAA title and signed an endorsement deal with Nike.

Ernie Els wins the 1994 U.S. Open golf tournament in sudden-death playoff. The U.S. women's golf team, led by Dottie Mochrie, beats Europe for the 1994 Solheim Cup.

World Cup soccer comes to the U.S. for the first time: 24 teams play 52 World Cup games in nine cities to 3,567,415 fans, culminating in a title match between Brazil and Italy. Earlier the U.S. upset Colombia, but lost to the Brazilian team, who went on to win the cup.

Supreme Court Justice Harry Blackmun, 85, who wrote the majority opinion in Roe v. Wade, the landmark 1973 case that guaranteed a woman's legal right to abortion, announces his retirement from the court after 24 years.

The Charles and Diana fairy-tale turned sordid soap continues: A German newspaper prints nude photos of Prince Charles; he publishes a confession saying he never loved his wife. Princess Diana is suspected of making crank phone calls; an old friend who claims to be her ex-lover hawks a trashy kiss-and-tell book.

Tabliss the cat spends 12 days and 32,000 miles in the fuselage of a Tower Air 747 jet when she escapes her cat carrier and gets lost in the cargo hold. Tabliss makes television appearances after her rescue with her aspiring-actress owner. Tabliss lost two pounds during the ordeal; her owner lost six.

The Florida judge would not allow Paul Hill to use justifiable homicide as a defense in the shootings of Dr. John Britton and his bodyguard outside a Pensacola abortion clinic. Hill is found guilty of murder in the first degree.

Anna Paquin, 11, wins an Academy Award for her performance in The Piano. Says actor Gene Hackman, "I guess now you'll have no trouble getting cast in your school play."

Ronald Reagan, 83, announces he is in the early stages of Alzheimer's disease, which will cause him to rely increasingly on wife Nancy. Doctors say the easy-going ex-president should be able to function normally for several more years.

Despite hurried obscenities and death threats, Shannon Faulkner, 19, battles the all-male Citadel for the right to become the first female cadet in the 152-year history of the state-supported South Carolina military school.

Nelson Mandela, an international hero who won the Nobel Peace Prize, writes his story. Long Walk to Freedom: The Autobiography of Nelson Mandela covers the author's 27 years as a political prisoner, his release, and black Africans struggle for freedom.

Sending a worthy message to pageant-watchers, Heather Whitestone, a deaf Alabama college junior who works with handicapped kids, is crowned 1994 Miss America by her predecessor Kimberly Aiken.

In Singapore, American teenager Michael Fay is convicted of vandalism and publicly caned four times by a martial arts master, despite pleas from his family and President Clinton.

Cartoonist Gary Larson announces that he will retire The Far Side, a feature that began in 1978 and has appeared in 1,500 newspapers.

Congratulations Class of 1995!

BFGoodrich employees earn high marks
from Vermont educators.

"I think BF Goodrich is a good example of what we hope a lot of other schools will start doing. And this is a strong commitment on the part of that company to the education of our students."

CLIF RANDOLPH,
Principal, Vergennes
